ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS AT ORANGEBURG.

Table with columns for PASSENGER, FREIGHT, DAY TRAINS, NIGHT TRAINS, Down, Up, and times.

We have enjoyed the universal spell of very bad weather during the last week.

Mr. W. H. Walker at the office of the Daily Phoenix, is our duly authorized agent for the city of Columbia.

When Sherman burnt the city of Columbia and laid it in ashes, the Bostonians celebrated the event with cannon.

Our correspondents were not sent copies of the Times last week, because all our extra copies were exhausted while we were in Columbia at the State Fair, etc.

We are in receipt of a complimentary invitation to the Commencement Ball of the King's Mountain Military School, for which we return our thanks and the wish that it may prove a success.

From our press of matter we had to forego the pleasure of giving to our readers in our last the benefit of our first in a series of Charleston letters.

The Times of last week took well; it was indeed as lively a sheet as we knew how to make it. This number we hope will be even more interesting, containing as it does, letters from Charleston and Columbia.

We beg to call attention to the County advertisements, which appear for the first time to-day. They refer for the most part to the sale of lands by Sheriff O. C. which will take place on salesday of December.

TOWN TAXES.—We are requested to state that the time for collecting the town taxes expires on the 15th instant. All interested will do well to pay up before that date, as the penalty will be added to those then delinquent.

Our town was festiced during two evenings of last week by Mr Kirby, who gave exhibitions of his legerdemain and ventriloquism. We were not present, not being in town, but it must have been a treat, rare of its kind, and doubly so here.

It was great pleasure to us to witness a strong representation from Orangeburg County at the State Fair of last week. There was a goodly number of persons attendant, and the exhibition from our County formed no inconsiderable portion of the display in Columbia.

The town is remarkably quiet, no accident of turmoil.

When Sherman burnt the city of Columbia and laid it in ashes, the Bostonians celebrated the event with cannon.

Down with your grape! We will none of it! With every "Sherman sentinel" in South Carolina has its counterpart by some Yankee hearth. Stir up your fire, old NORTON!

The Times, hereafter, besides the usual local information, will also contain a letter from Charleston, Columbia and Washington, each by experienced men. They will be lively, crisp, and on political points pungent. The enterprise appeals to every man who can read in the County.

Notice to Consignors Per South Carolina Railroad.

By order of the Vice President of the So. Ca. R.R. all freight charges both LOCAL & THROUGH will be collected at this Agency and no goods will be delivered until charges have been paid at the Depot.

Orangeburg, S. C., Nov. 9th, 1872. 2t

Our types beg to return thanks to the politeness of Mr. John Harizog, the efficient assistant of Mr. J. H. Wallers; at his refreshment saloon.

In the wee hours of the night he surprised them with a sample of his whiskey, segars and tobacco, which they will testify were excellent of their kind, and very pleasant to the inner man.

BUILDING MATERIAL.—In another column will be found the advertisement of one of the most extensive manufactories of doors, sashes, and blinds, in the Southern States.

The Barnwell County Fair comes off on the 25th, 26th and 27th of this month. There will no doubt be plenty of amusement for the lovers of Agriculture and enterprise.

ORANGEBURG ACADEMY.

The generous patronage, and growing favor, which this Academy has received, since its formation, has afforded great encouragement to the undersigned, and convinced them that industry and application on their part, is all that is now necessary to render a permanent success, what heretofore may have been regarded as an experiment.

They set out with the determination to supply fully the educational wants of the community, and to the accomplishment of this end, they now renew their promise to devote all their energies and abilities.

All the latest improvements in textbooks, modes of instruction, mechanical appliances and discipline, will be carefully studied and judiciously introduced.

In fact, no pains will be spared to make the ORANGEBURG ACADEMY rank favorably with the best in the State or elsewhere.

Boys will be prepared for College, of business, and young ladies given a finished course of instruction.

The male and female departments are kept strictly separated, except during recitations.

Pupils can enter at any time, and those living at a distance will be furnished with reasonable board in good families.

To the Orangeburg Public.

Please allow us to call your attention to, and with no small feeling of pride, request your careful perusal of the following:

JAMES S. HEYWARD. A CARD.

The undersigned, without any solicitation on the part of the Editor and Proprietor of the Orangeburg Times, deem it our duty to urge the claims of this paper on the citizens of the county.

It is passing strange, that men who are being robbed daily, should ignore the claims of this Journal, and continue their support of another paper, conducted in the interest of those who are robbing them, and whose pages are filled with abuse of themselves and all that they hold dear—giving the cold shoulder to this paper, whose sole object is to advance their interests? And yet such is the case!

It is, perhaps, not generally known, that little, if any, of the public printing (which is a county paper's chief support!) is given to it, and hence its claims upon you is all the greater on that account.

Farmers, subscribe to the Times! Merchants, advertise in this paper!!

Be assured that its career is anxiously watched by the party in power, and that its successor failure will be a sure index of the feeling of our people.

Let this paper fail, and no other proof will be needed, that we do not care to be freed from the vultures who are gnawing at our very vitals!

Is it right? Is it manly; to complain of the yoke, under which we are suffering, and not raise a hand in our own behalf?

Support, then, the only organ of the conservative party in the our thereby aid yourselves!

We desire, in conclusion, to recommend to your confidence the present Editor and Proprietor—we believe that your interests can safely be intrusted to his hands! (Signed)

THE NEW LAWS CONCERNING NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.

The following is a summary of the laws concerning newspaper postage just issued to postmasters:

Sec. 138. That no newspaper shall be received to be conveyed by mail unless they shall be dried and enclosed in proper wrappers.

Sec. 139. That when packages of newspapers or other periodicals are received at a postoffice directed to one address, and the name of the subscribers to whom they belong, with the postage for quarter in advance is handed to the postmaster, he shall deliver such papers or periodicals to their respective owners.

Sec. 140. The postmasters shall notify the publisher of any newspaper or other periodical when any subscriber shall reuse to take the same from the office or neglect to call for it for the period of one month.

Sec. 141. That the publishers of news papers or periodicals may print or write upon their publications, sent to regular subscribers, the address of the subscriber and the date when the subscription expires, and enclose therein bills and receipts for subscription thereto without subjecting such matter to extra postage.

Sec. 142. That any person who shall enclose or conceal any letter, memorandum, or other thing in any mail matter, not charged with letter postage, or make any writing or memorandum thereon, and deposit or cause the same to be deposited for conveyance by mail, for less than letter postage, shall, for every such offence forfeit and pay five dollars, and such newspaper or periodical shall not be delivered until the postage thereon is paid at letter rates.

Sec. That on newspaper and periodical publications, not exceeding four ounces in weight, sent from a known office of publication to regular subscribers, postage shall be charged at the following rates per quarter, namely:— On publications issued less frequently than once a week, at the rate of 1 cent for each issue; issued once a week 5 cents additional for each issue more frequent than once a week. An additional rate shall be charged for each additional four ounces or fraction thereof in weight.

Sec. 150. That on newspapers and other periodicals sent from a known office of publication to regular subscribers, the postage shall be paid before delivery, not less than one-quarter nor more than one year; which payment may be made either at the office of mailing or delivery commencing at any time, and the postmaster shall account for said postage in the quarter in which it was received.

Sec. 160. That the Postmaster General may provide, by regulations for carrying small newspapers, issued less frequently than once a week, in packages to one address from a known office of publication to regular subscribers, at the rate of one cent for each four ounces, or portion thereof.

Sec. 161. That persons known as regular dealers in newspapers and periodicals may receive and transmit by mail such quantities of either as they may require, and pay the postage thereon as received at the same rates pro rata as regular subscribers to such publication who pay quarterly in advance.

The Aldine

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the best published in the World. A Representative of the Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores. THE ALDINE, while it retains its regularity, has none of the usual and timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of the light, and graceful literature, and a full of pictures, the most specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year.

When other publications may claim superior character, and compare with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original production—simple and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engraving in another shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the Chromos.

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding an increase in the price of subscription last Fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support a sincere effort in the cause of art. The publishers, anxious to justify the confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop the Art Department of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic interests, and present general interest, avoiding the usual, and becoming familiar, through the purchase of copies of any kind.

The quarterly intended plates for 1873, will reproduce four of John's Davis' admirable child-sketches, appropriate to the season. These plates, appearing in the issues of January, April, July, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular series of Chromos, illustrated "Christmas" number will be equally valuable.

To possess such a valuable volume of the art world at a cost so trifling, is a boon, and the subscriptions of benevolent patrons, extending to the country, but, as the 1873 plates and attractions of THE ALDINE can be obtained in proportion to the number of copies of the paper, the publishers propose to make a special double sure, by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The chromos are "The Village Belle" and "Susan of the Mill," are 14 x 20 inches—acquired from the original artist, requiring 25 impressions and giving a perfect color picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair, in the art stores, and the determination of its superiority to any other department, the chromos will be correspondingly ahead of any other, and will receive a certificate of merit from the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished (the agent, or the money will be refunded). The distribution of pictures of this kind to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE, the marvel will be little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventors and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

will continue under the care of DR. RICHARD HENRY STODDARD, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS.—$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for single numbers will be sent to the publishers direct, and the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.
